Goforth Events

About Us

Megan Goforth is the owner and creator of Goforth Events. Goforth Events is located in Grass Valley, which is a small town in Northern California. This company is a small for-profit event coordinating business that assists clients with coordination, planning, and design of weddings and other events. As a coordinator and planner, she prides herself on neat and organized, so that her clients can have a sense of relief that details will not get lost or fall through the cracks. Having a warm and friendly environment so that the clients feel welcomed and comfortable is very important. Lastly, Megan's relaxed vibe help keep the clients feel at ease during the planning process.
